Continuing professional development for schools

Course booklet 2023/24

Welcome

Who we are

We are a dedicated, experienced and highly qualified team of professionals, offering a range of support to schools - both across the curriculum and through all ages and phases, from the EYFS to Key Stage 5. Building on existing expertise in schools, we offer a comprehensive programme of continuing professional development (CPD) courses throughout the year to help teachers develop a culture of high quality teaching and learning in schools, and respond to the specific needs of schools to the local, regional and national agenda.

In addition to centrally run CPD courses, we also provide:

- Bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training
- A range of packages of support, which can be viewed on the Telford Education Services website.

How to use the course document

Our CPD courses are listed in the index, appearing under one or more category (ie Teaching and Learning, Leadership and Management) and are also listed in date order in our course calendar – all of which are hyperlinked to the relevant course page in the booklet. At the bottom of each page there is a hyperlink to return the reader to the index.

The booklet is regularly updated and can be found on the Telford Education Services website.

Where we hold our training

The majority of training courses are held in centrally located hotels and purpose built training centres. The training rooms are modern, comfortable and practical spaces able to accommodate cabaret or theatre style seating, fully equipped with the latest technology and Wi-Fi. Refreshments are provided on arrival and during mid-session breaks, with lunch provided for full day courses, catering for all dietary requirements. Car parking facilities are usually available on site, easily accessible and mostly free of charge.

Where face to face training is not practical our courses are held virtually using Microsoft Teams.

CPD

A young girl in a white school uniform and dark tie is smiling broadly while writing on a whiteboard with a black marker. She is looking up and to the right. In the background, another person in a white shirt is also writing on the whiteboard. The scene is brightly lit, likely from a window, creating a positive and collaborative atmosphere.

“Superb ideas, probably the most valuable CPD
I’ve ever had.”

Cancellation policy: Please refer to the CPD Booklet for the full cancellation policy. In summary, all cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation is received.

A charge of 35% (*) will normally be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within 5 working days of the course date, with the full course fee being charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In exceptional circumstances, where a course is running again within the same academic year, we will do our best to move delegates across to the next course date. However, where notification of non-attendance is received on the day of a face to face course, a £20 flat fee will be charged to cover the cost of refreshments, the venue and administration; this will be in addition to the full course fee when the delegate next attends that particular course.

For courses which are free of charge, any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will incur a £10 delegate fee (for online courses) to cover administration and a £20 delegate (for face to face courses) to cover refreshment and venue costs.

Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give 5 working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Safety Intervention Training (formerly MAPA training) - CPI accredited

Course Tutors: Kim Barclay, Clare Wilson

Target Audience: All School Staff - T&W LA Maintained Schools only

Course Content

This CPI accredited training has been designed to enhance your understanding and management of disruptive, aggressive, and / or violent behaviour.

Safety Intervention Training has been delivered to a wide range of professional staff within health, education and social care environments since 1992, and aims to ensure that everyone involved in crisis situations, which include disruptive, challenging, or violent behaviour, can maintain the care, welfare, safety, and security of all involved.

The programme will be delivered to you within a legal and professional framework consistent with current national standards, your organisation's policies and guidance and current research, as well as recognised best practices.

Key Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will have explored and developed a range of psychological and physiological responses to behaviour that will enable you to minimise the potential harm disruptive, aggressive, and/or violent behaviour can cause. The ultimate focus is to ensure that you gain the essential knowledge, skills, and confidence to prevent, decelerate, and de-escalate crisis situations.

Additionally, this programme will ensure that you have the necessary foundation skills to reduce the likelihood of risky or dangerous behaviour occurring in the first instance, as well as to manage such behaviour when it does occur, using a range of recognised physical interventions that aim to minimise risk, without damaging the professional and supportive relationship you have worked so hard to establish with the individuals in your care.

To maintain your licence, a refresher must be attended every 12 months (BSAT 212).

Online Safety – a Safeguarding Responsibility

Course Tutor: Rebecca Carey

Target Audience: Headteachers, governors, senior & middle leaders

Course Content

Digital technology is continually changing and therefore it is essential that schools stay up-to-date with new developments.

Within the Ofsted framework online safety is included as an important part of a school's overall safeguarding responsibility.

Guidance for Ofsted inspectors to use when inspecting safeguarding under the common inspection framework outlines that, when assessing how effectively leaders and governors create a safeguarding culture in the setting, inspectors should consider evidence that:

- action is taken to ensure children are taught about safeguarding risks, including online risks
- staff, leaders and managers oversee the safe use of electronic and social media by staff and learners, and take immediate action if they are concerned about bullying or risky behaviours
- appropriate filters and monitoring systems are in place to protect learners from potentially harmful online material

Online safety is categorised into three main areas of risk:

Content: Being exposed to illegal, inappropriate or harmful material

Contact: Being subjected to harmful online interaction with other users

Conduct: Personal online behaviour that increases the likelihood of, or causes, harm

Key Outcomes

This course is designed to ensure delegates are informed about the issues and resources available to enable them to safeguard and educate young people about how to safely use online environments.

Even if you currently have no children in care or children with a Social Worker at your school, it is important that you remain up to date with processes and expectations. In addition, Ofsted is looking quite closely at the relationship schools have with the Virtual School, and information gained at network meetings has proven very useful to many schools during inspection.

Educational outcomes for children in care and children in need are a key priority for Ofsted in the West Midlands Region and inspectors have told us that they will be looking closely at how a school prioritises work with children in care and vulnerable learners when making inspection judgements.

Key Outcomes

Attendance will help to ensure schools comply with statutory duties for Children in Care, previously Looked after Children and Children with a Social Worker.

The conference will provide:

- opportunities to network
- share best practice

Morning session: Jan Dubiel

Jan Dubiel is a nationally and internationally recognised specialist in Early Childhood Education - recently identified by the Times Educational Supplement as one of the ten most influential people in British education.

During the morning session Jan will explore the importance of understanding, developing and 'owning' a personal pedagogy. While the EYFS Framework defines the outline of the Curriculum and intentions / outcomes, how this is facilitated belongs to the educators themselves.

The importance of developing a pedagogical repertoire, and how this enables effective decision to be taken, lies at the heart of ensuring that the Curriculum is accessible and meaningful to the children that you work with. Using practical examples and acknowledging research and theories, Jan will explore the features and dimensions of the contexts for teaching and learning in EYFS Provision.

Afternoon session: Music for EYFS, practical ideas for teachers and practitioners - led by Soundpots, winners of the Primary/Early Years Music category at the Music Teacher Awards for Excellence in 2017.

In this session we will explore ideas for delivering musical sessions for your children. Delegates will take part in group activities which they can replicate in their settings. No musical knowledge or skill is needed - the intention is to de-mystify musical learning and encourage delegates to add music to their provision.

The Soundpots Team have a wealth of experience in EYFS music delivery and training. Support is given to Early Years Practitioners and parents / carers to develop their skill set and confidence in sharing songs, rhymes and musical play with their children, using a range of engaging activities and resources.

The Role of the Key Person in the Early Years Foundation Stage

Course Tutor: Charlotte Cartwright

Target Audience: Reception class teachers, nursery practitioners and teaching assistants

Course Content

(Department for Education) The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) is mandatory for all providers of early years in England; this includes maintained schools, non-maintained schools and independent schools.

Ofsted and inspectorates of independent schools have regard to the EYFS in carrying out inspections. Ofsted may issue actions (in respect of any failure to meet a requirement in the document) and/or may issue a welfare requirement notice (in respect of section 3). It is an offence for a provider to fail to comply with a welfare requirement notice.

EYFS 1.10 and 3.27

Each child must be assigned a key person. Their role is to help ensure that every child's care is tailored to meet their individual needs, to help the child become familiar with the setting, offer a settled relationship for the child and build a relationship with the parents. The key person must seek to engage and support parents and / or carers in guiding their child's development at home. They should also help families engage with more specialist support if appropriate.

Education Inspection Framework:

Evaluating the quality of early years education in schools

Good practice – Implementation

- Staff provide information for parents about their child's progress in line with requirements of the EYFS. They provide information to parents about supporting their child's learning at home, including detail about the school's method of teaching reading and how to help children learn to read.
- The curriculum and care practices promote and support children's emotional security and development of their character. Leaders and staff are particularly attentive to the youngest children's needs.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will:

- have a greater understanding of the importance of the role of the key person in supporting children's learning, development and wellbeing
- have a raised awareness of the importance of supporting children's emotional health and wellbeing through strong key person relationships, including attachment theory
- be able to reflect upon current practice with regards to the role of the 'key person', as set out in the in the Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum:
 - knowing the child well
 - observing and planning to meet their individual needs, and
 - supporting learning in the home environment
- understand the important role of the key person when supporting children through transitions into the nursery / school, within the school, and through key events in children's lives

Accredited Safer Recruitment Training

Course Tutor: HR Advisory Team representative, Education Safeguarding Target Audience: Governors, senior leaders (cross phase)

Course Content

This training looks at the best practice that should be adopted when recruiting and selecting adults to work with children and young people. It sets out procedures and strategies to help those involved in the recruitment process to deter, identify and reject applicants who are unsuitable to work with children and young people. It also seeks to strengthen safeguards by helping to deter and prevent abuse, with the aim of creating an environment where concerns can be raised on poor or unsafe practice.

The course is intended to help employers fulfil their responsibility to have in place safe recruitment and selection practice within the wider context of safeguarding children and young people. Our lead trainer is fully accredited by the Safer Recruitment Consortium.

It is a requirement that 'providers ensure that people looking after children are suitable to fulfil the requirements of their role. Providers must have effective systems in place to ensure that practitioners, and any other person who is likely to have regular contact with children, are suitable.' (Statutory Framework for the EYFS 3.9)

This course will:

- give participants an awareness and understanding of offender behaviour

Educational Visits Advisory Service Information Page

Telford & Wrekin Council offers training to assist educational establishments in discharging their duties with regards to educational visits and journeys and to support quality of learning. These courses are offered as open courses for individuals, or as school/group dedicated training.

Educational Visits Co-ordinator (EVC): ALL EVCs must hold a current Outdoor Education Advisors' Panel (OEAP) EVC training certificate (valid for 3 years). We provide a 6 hour OEAP accredited initial and revalidation training for Educational Visits Coordinators on a termly basis, together with termly Network Meetings for EVCs as part of a core package. Attendance at these meetings can be used for revalidation, rather than repeat attendance at EVC training (minimum attendance of 1 meeting per school year will be required). A certificate is issued by TWC and a record of EVC course attendance is kept.

Visit Leader Training: We offer OEAP accredited Visit Leader Training (theory only or theory and practical combined) as a recommended option for EVCs and staff leading and/or taking a key role on an Educational Visit.

Management of Visit Emergencies: We also offer the OEAP accredited Management of Visit Emergencies (MOVE) 3 hour scenario based course for EVCs and Managers. This is an expanded section of the EVC Training course.

Visit Leader - Additional Outdoor Education Courses

Outdoor Emergency First Aid: This 16 hour first aid course, accredited by Immediate Temporary Care or Rescue Emergency Care, has an emphasis on outdoor settings. The course is hands-on and as practical as possible, with medical jargon and knowledge kept to a minimum. Teaching is through demonstrations, presentations, discussions and lots of practice, including mock scenarios.

Lowland Leader (replaces Shropshire Hills Leader): Designed for people who wish to lead groups on day walks in lowland countryside and woodland in summer conditions. The majority of the UK and Ireland is made up of this type of terrain, so you'll never be short of places to go walking. It is ideal for Duke of Edinburgh Expedition Leaders at Bronze and Silver. It is also useful for Educational Visit Leaders who lead their own countryside walks.

Mountain Leader (Summer) Award: The Mountain Leader scheme offers the opportunity to gain technical competence in leading walkers in the hills and mountains. It is the combination of technical skills, wide experience and personal leadership qualities, which form the basis for effective group management, and the scheme assesses all these aspects. The term 'summer' is used to exclude any conditions when snow and ice prevail or are forecast.

John Muir Award: Attending training is not a requirement to be able to run the John Muir Award; however training courses are available to help leaders to find out more about the ethos of the John Muir Award and practicalities of delivering it.

Shropshire and T&W Outdoor Learning Scheme for Schools: A scheme to support outdoor learning in school grounds and forest school settings.

There are three levels:

1. 'Learning Outside the Classroom Practitioner' (delivered by Arthog Outreach)
2. Forest Skills Leader (delivered by Judie Udale of Wrekin Forest School)
3. Forest Schools Leader (OCN L3) (External Providers). Ceris Williams-Turner continues as the Forest Schools Technical Advisor to T&WC and SCC.

Terms and conditions

CANCELLATION POLICY

All cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation is received.

A charge of 35%* will normally be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within five working days of the course date, with the full course fee being charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In exceptional circumstances, where a course is running again within the same academic year, we will do our best to move delegates across to the next course date. However, where notification of non-attendance is received on the day of a face to face course, a £20 flat fee will be charged to cover the cost of refreshments, the venue and administration; this will be in addition to the full course fee when the delegate next attends that particular course.

Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give five working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Courses offered to schools by other teams are also advertised within this booklet. Where booking procedures and contact details are different for these courses, this information is contained at the bottom of the course page.

NOTES

Delegate fees: Whilst we will make every effort not to do so, we reserve the right to increase the delegate fees during the year to reflect any inflationary price increases in either room hire and/or catering.

Where courses indicate that there will be a 10% discount per delegate for two or more bookings on the same course, this refers to multiple bookings on the same date or session (by two or more delegates from the same school)

*For courses which are free of charge, any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will incur a £10 delegate fee (for online courses) to cover administration and a £20 delegate (for face to face courses) to cover refreshment and venue costs.

Personal data: Telford & Wrekin Council collects your personal data to enable you to be able to complete eLearning and face to face training to support your role under Article 6(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 or equivalent United Kingdom legislation.

Telford & Wrekin Council will not share any of your personal data with external organisations, unless required to do so by law or to enable you to be invited to Virtual training through Microsoft Teams. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We provide a range of services to schools, including:

- bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training;
- continuing professional development courses; and
- packages of support via service level agreements.

As a service we are committed to:

- dealing with complaints and concerns quickly and effectively; and
- using the information received to review and improve our services.

Sometimes we do make mistakes - if you are not happy with the service you have received from us we want to know. In most instances we would hope that any concerns can be resolved at the time - with the provider of that service. If, having done this, you still have cause for concern, please follow the steps below.

The formal complaints procedure has three stages:

Stage 1 - If you have a complaint or cause for concern, please contact Liz Smith, Service Delivery Manager, as soon as possible.
email: elisabeth.smith@telford.gov.uk or tel: 01952 380895

We aim to respond fully to complaints within 10 working days. If for some reason this is not possible, we will contact you to explain the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response. Most complaints will be quickly and successfully resolved at this stage.

Stage 2 - In the unlikely event that you feel your complaint has not been successfully resolved we would ask you to contact our Director of Education and Skills, Simon Wellman.
email: simon.welman@telford.gov.uk or tel: 01952 380800

We aim to respond to a Stage 2 complaint within 25 working days. If it is not possible to respond within 25 working days, we will write to you explaining the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response.

Stage 3 - If you still feel your complaint remains unresolved, please refer to the Council's Complaints procedure – which can be found on the Telford & Wrekin Council website: <http://www.telford.gov.uk/info/20077/complaints/34/the-complaints-process>
