Continuing professional development for schools

Course booklet 2026/27

Welcome

Who we are

We are a dedicated, experienced and highly qualified team of professionals, offering a range of support to schools - both across the curriculum and through all ages and phases, from the EYFS to Key Stage 5. Building on existing expertise in schools, we offer a comprehensive programme of continuing professional development (CPD) courses throughout the year to help teachers develop a culture of high quality teaching and learning in schools, and respond to the specific needs of schools to the local, regional and national agenda.

In addition to centrally run CPD courses, we also provide:

- Bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training
- A range of packages of support, which can be viewed on the Telford Education Services website.

How to use the course document

Our CPD courses are listed in the index, appearing under one or more category (ie Teaching and Learning, Leadership and Management) and are also listed in date order in our course calendar – all of which are hyperlinked to the relevant course page in the booklet. At the bottom of each page there is a hyperlink to return the reader to the index.

The booklet is regularly updated and can be found on the Telford Education Services website.

THINK - don't print!

Where we hold our training

The majority of training courses are held in centrally located hotels and purpose built training centres. The training rooms are modern, comfortable and practical spaces able to accommodate cabaret or theatre style seating, fully equipped with the latest technology and Wi-Fi. Refreshments are provided on arrival and during mid-session breaks, with lunch provided for full day courses, catering for all dietary requirements. Car parking facilities are usually available on site, easily accessible and mostly free of charge.

Where face to face training is not practical our courses are held virtually using Microsoft Teams.

Cancellation policy: Please refer to the CPD Booklet for the full cancellation policy. In summary, all cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately, a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation is received.

A charge of 35% () will normally be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within 5 working days of the course date, with the full course fee being charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In exceptional circumstances, where a course is running again within the same academic year, we will do our best to move delegates across to the next course date; however, where notification of non-attendance is received on the day of a face-to-face course, a £20 flat fee will be charged to cover the cost of refreshments, the venue and administration; this will be in addition to the full course fee when the delegate next attends that particular course.*

For courses which are free of charge, any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will incur a £10 delegate fee (for online courses) to cover administration and a £20 delegate fee (for face-to-face courses) to cover refreshment and venue costs.

Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give 5 working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Course Tutor: BSAT Team
Target Audience: All school staff - T&W LA Maintained Schools only

Course Content

This CPI accredited training has been designed to enhance your understanding and management of disruptive, aggressive, and / or violent behaviour.

Safety Intervention Training has been delivered to a wide range of professional staff within health, education and social care environments since 1992, and aims to ensure that everyone involved in crisis situations, which include disruptive, challenging, or violent behaviour, can maintain the care, welfare, safety, and security of all involved.

The programme will be delivered to you within a legal and professional framework consistent with current national standards, your organisation's policies and guidance and current research, as well as recognised best practices.

Key Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will have explored and developed a range of psychological and physiological responses to behaviour that will enable you to minimise the potential harm disruptive, aggressive, and/or violent behaviour can cause. The ultimate focus of this event is to ensure that you gain the essential knowledge, skills, and confidence to prevent, decelerate, and de-escalate crisis situations.

Additionally, this programme will ensure you have the necessary foundation skills to reduce the likelihood of risky or dangerous behaviour occurring in the first instance, as well as to manage such behaviour when it does occur - using a range of recognised physical interventions that aim to minimise risk, without damaging the professional and supportive relationship you have worked so hard to establish with the individuals in your care.

Please note: both parts must be completed within no more than 6 weeks of each other.
To maintain your licence, a Safety Intervention Refresher course (BSAT 212) must be attended every 12 months.

Online Safety – a Safeguarding Responsibility

Tuesday, April 13, 2027

3.30pm to 5pm
Online via Microsoft Teams

Course Tutor: Education Safeguarding Team
Target Audience: Headteachers, governors, senior & middle leaders

Course Content

Digital technology is continually changing, and it is therefore essential that schools stay up to date with new developments.

Within the Ofsted framework online safety is included as an important part of a school's overall safeguarding responsibility, alongside the requirements set out in Keeping Children Safe in Education and the newly issued DFE guidance for use of mobile phones in schools.

Guidance for Ofsted inspectors to use when inspecting safeguarding under the common inspection framework outlines that, when assessing how effectively leaders and governors create a safeguarding culture in the setting, inspectors should consider evidence that:

- action is taken to ensure children are taught about safeguarding risks, including online risks
- staff, leaders and managers oversee the safe use of electronic and social media by staff and learners, and take immediate action if they are concerned about bullying or risky behaviours
- appropriate filters and monitoring systems are in place to protect learners from potentially harmful online material

Online safety is categorised into three main areas of risk:

Content: Children may be exposed to illegal, inappropriate, or harmful material. This includes:

- Pornography including AI generated material
- Racism, misogyny, anti-Semitism
- Self-harm or suicide content
- Extremism and radicalisation
- Misinformation, disinformation and conspiracy theories (explicitly strengthened in KCSIE 2025 updates)

Contact: Risks arising from harmful interaction with others online, such as:

- Peer-to-peer pressure
- Harmful or inappropriate commercial advertising
- Adults posing as children/young people
- Grooming for sexual, criminal, financial, or other exploitation

Conduct: Refers to how the child behaves online, potentially causing or increasing risk of harm, including:

- Online bullying
- Making, sending or receiving explicit images (including nudes/semi-nudes)
- Oversharing personal information
- Viewing or sharing pornography

Commerce: Risks relating to financial harm or commercial exploitation, such as:

- Online gambling
- Inappropriate advertising
- Phishing
- Financial scams or fraudulent in-game purchases

Key Outcomes

This course is designed to ensure delegates are informed about the issues and resources available to enable them to safeguard and educate young people about how to safely use online environments.

Virtual School Conference for Designated Teachers and Nominated Governors for Children in Care

Friday, June 18, 2027
8.30am to 4pm
Face to Face

Course Tutor: Virtual School
Target Audience: Designated teachers, designated safeguarding leads & nominated governors for Children in Care

Course Content

This conference, which is held annually, provides delegates with an opportunity to develop links with the Virtual School, Health and Social Care colleagues and with other Designated Teachers, Designated Safeguarding Leads and Nominated Governors, as we work together to increase the progress Telford & Wrekin children in care and all children with a Social Worker make in school and beyond.

Even if you currently have no children in care or children with a Social Worker at your school, it is important that you remain up to date with processes and expectations. In addition, Ofsted looks closely at the relationship schools have with the Virtual School, and information gained at network meetings has proven very useful to many schools during inspection. Educational outcomes for children in care and children in need are a key priority for Ofsted in the West Midlands Region and inspectors have told us that they will be looking closely at how a school prioritises work with children in care and vulnerable learners when making inspection judgements.

The programme for this year's conference will be circulated via flyer once finalised.

Key Outcomes

Attendance will help to ensure schools comply with statutory duties for Children in Care, previously Looked after Children, and Children with a Social Worker.

The conference will provide:

- opportunities to network
- share best practice
- keep up to date with the latest research and all key developments

Cost per delegate

How to talk to children and families about weight

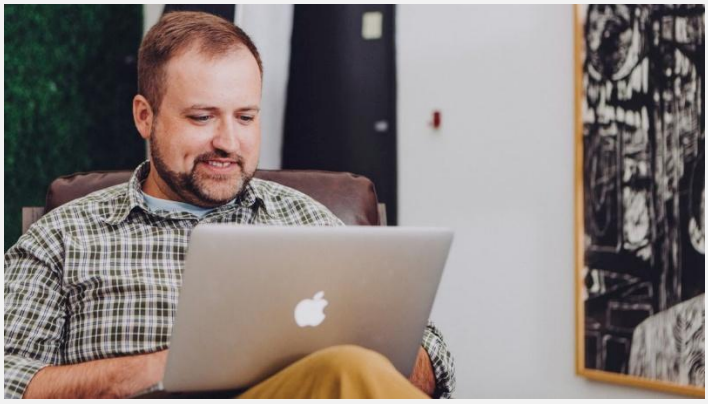

Children sometimes start conversations about their weight and it is best to be prepared to have these conversations either with children or their parents. The University of Bath has created an e-learning module and guidance booklet to support parents to talk to their children about weight in a positive way.

Health & Wellbeing Audits

Do you find that you're not sure where the gaps are in your health and wellbeing offer? Or are you struggling for ideas on what you should focus on next?

We have created an audit for primary and secondary schools to complete to identify the areas you are covering well in health and wellbeing and also where there may be some gaps or areas for development in your offer. The items on the audit cover the topics of physical activity, food & nutrition and school ethos & culture.

When you access the audit, you will also be given access to a shared folder with the team so that we are able provide you with resources and tools to help you in the areas you may not currently have provision for. The audit will be a live document that you can start and come back to, and you will have continued access to, to be able to update the work you are doing in school. You are also able to have multiple members of staff have access to the folder, so it doesn't have to be the responsibility of just one person.

If you would like to access the audit please get in contact with us at healthimprovement@telford.gov.uk using "School Audit" in the subject line as well as confirming the school that you work in and your role within the school in the email, so we are able to assign you a shared folder.

Terms and conditions

CANCELLATION POLICY

All cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation of cancellation is received.

A charge of 35% will be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within 5 working days of the course, with the full fee being charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In exceptional circumstances, where a course is running again within the same academic year, we will do our best to move delegates across to the next course date. However, where notification of non-attendance is received on the day of a face to face course, a £20 flat fee will be charged to cover the cost of refreshments, the venue and administration; this will be in addition to the full course fee when the delegate next attends that particular course.

For courses which are free of charge, any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will incur a £10 delegate fee for online courses to cover administration and a £20 delegate fee for face to face courses to cover refreshment and venue costs.

All delegates will be required to sign the course register on arrival. Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give 5 working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Courses offered to schools by other teams are also advertised within this booklet. Where booking procedures and contact details are different for these courses, this information is contained at the bottom of the course page.

NOTES

Delegate Fees: Whilst we will make every effort not to do so, we reserve the right to increase the delegate fees during the year to reflect any inflationary price increases in either room hire and / or catering.

Where courses indicate that there will be a 10% discount per delegate for two or more bookings on the same course, this refers to multiple bookings on the same date or session (by two or more delegates from the same school)

Personal Data: Telford & Wrekin Council collects your personal data to enable you to be able to complete eLearning and face to face training to support your role under Article 6(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 or equivalent United Kingdom legislation.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We provide a range of services to schools, including:

- bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training
- continuing professional development courses
- packages of support via service level agreements

As a service we are committed to:

- dealing with complaints and concerns quickly and effectively, and
- using the information received to review and improve our services

Sometimes we do make mistakes - if you are not happy with the service you have received from us we want to know. In most instances we would hope that any concerns can be resolved at the time - with the provider of that service. If, having done this, you still have cause for concern, please follow the steps below.

The formal complaints procedure has three stages:

Stage One - If you have a complaint or cause for concern, please contact Scott Thomas-White, Head of Service, as soon as possible.
email: Scott.ThomasWhite@telford.gov.uk

We aim to respond fully to complaints within 10 working days. If for some reason this is not possible, we will contact you to explain the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response. Most complaints will be quickly and successfully resolved at this stage.

Stage Two - In the unlikely event that you feel your complaint has not been successfully resolved we would ask you to contact our Director of Education and Skills, Rebecca Carey.
email: Rebecca.Carey@telford.gov.uk or tel: 01952 380800

We aim to respond to a Stage 2 complaint within 25 working days. If it is not possible to respond within 25 working days, we will write to you explaining the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response.

Stage Three - If you still feel your complaint remains unresolved, please refer to the Council's Complaints Procedure – which can be found on the Telford & Wrekin Council website: https://www.telford.gov.uk/your-views-matter/complaints/
